Larry Tracey

- Two-time semifinalist in The World Championship of Public Speaking
- Founder and Executive Director of Youth4Youth
- Corporate and business trainer in communication skills, time management, project management, and leadership development
- Former teacher and counselor
- Parent and author

Imagine energizing and empowering your audience with Larry's engaging style, resulting in your entire organization shifting into high gear, both personally and professionally with one of these two specialty keynotes!

The Secret of the Can

Bring the power of Larry Tracey and his 30-gallon "garbage can" to your organization for a passionate, fun and inspirational heart-felt message from his book "Secret of the Can: How to Not Get Distracted By the Drama and the Garbage of Life"

Larry has inspired thousands to live life with less stress, be more organized, have more time, and lead a more balanced life. Your audience will be able to experience new confidence and commitment, at all levels.

As Larry shares, "Everyone immediately thinks, 'If it's garbage, just throw it in the can!' But that's exactly what we've been doing our entire life! Then, we carry the can with us and wonder why we continually get distracted by the drama and the garbage in life."

When you discover the "Secret of theCan", you will move freely toward your dreams, direction and goals in life!

WWIDTIW Brave

"What Would I Do Today If I Were Brave?" Larry will entertain and inspire your audience as they learn a three-step formula that will empower them to cross the line of bravery daily. Begin to see yourself and those around you move quickly past limitations, achieve higher goals and accomplish more in less time. Imagine the confidence and increased performance your organization will experience when they ask themselves...

..."What Would You Do Today If You Were Brave?"
