About Larry Tracey

Larry Tracey is a 2-time semifinalist in the World Championship of Public Speaking. He specializes in teaching people how to "Plant the Seeds of Success" and raise kids who have self-confidence and esteem.

Larry went from studying for the priesthood to being part of the pit crew for Evel Knievel and rose to the top learning hard lessons. Those valuable life experiences propelled him on a road of "personal construction" where he discovered the importance of character, embracing the core values of integrity, quality and passion and practicing the principles of success.

As a leader in creating positive change, Larry founded and developed the Youth4Youth program, a nonprofit organization (www.youth4youth.org). He has developed and implemented leadership and success training programs in more than 50 schools impacting over 75,000 youth and adults. Project Love in Cleveland, Ohio, has recognized Larry as a Community Rescuer.

Larry is a former classroom teacher, outreach coordinator for at-risk youth and addictions counselor who left the classroom environment to increase his ability to impact and change lives. As a teacher, his students won Ohio U.S. Skills Competition and completed at the national level for a record nine consecutive years.

He is the father of three boys and author of the book, "The Secret of the Can: How to Not Get Distracted by the Drama and the Garbage of Life."
